Why We Love Coffee

Coffee's ability to bring people together, in-person, over a cup and create an atmosphere for dialogue creates a culture of contented coffee drinkers. Specialty coffee is expansive, across the globe wherever coffee is grown, roasted, and consumed. Thanks to the Internet, our CoffeeWithYou community extends beyond the doors of your local café. More people in more places can learn about and discuss coffee in easy and accessible ways. Coffee discussions also create connections and build relationships around the world while inspiring and eliciting discussions that continue moving coffee forward.

That one cup of coffee in the morning provides more than just an energy boost. More and more research that is emerging reveals many health benefits associated with drinking this dark black beverage. It can help prevent diabetes and lower the risk of liver disease. Waking up early? Trying to stay awake? You need coffee! Find your favorite local coffee shop at CoffeeWithYou.com.
